

Albania

Albanian education in the field of environment has aimed to achieve transmission and development at all school levels and further processing the foundations of environmental training and education. There is also an emphasis on integration of the content of environmental material into the scientific knowledge acquired in school through other fields of education addressing environmental concerns.

Albania is part of the Regional Environment Centre of Central and Eastern Europe. The Green Pack Kit on Environmental Education developed by the Regional Environment Centre has been distributed in various regions in Albania.